Read the Scriptures: Galatians 1 : 1, 11 - 12 and 2 : 11 - 16

Background:

Paul wrote letters to the believers as he travelled from place to place. One of his letters was written to the churches in Galatia. At that time, there were more and more Gentiles that came to believe in Jesus. The believers had the challenge to stand firm in their faith when they were faced with false teachings.

Observations:

1. Who was Paul? (1 : 1)

2. What did Paul say about the gospel that he preached? (1 : 11)

3. What did Paul understand about the gospel that he preached? (1 : 12)

4. What happened when Peter came to Antioch? What did Paul do? (2: 11,12)

5. What was the result of Peter's actions? (2 : 13)

Interpretations:

1. What is the gospel of Christ? (2 : 20, c.f. John 3 : 16)

2. Why should the believers of Jesus act in line with the truth of the gospel? (2 : 14)

3. How can a person be justified?

(To be justified = Declared / made righteous in the sight / eyes of God)

Applications:

1. What is your own understanding about the gospel?

2. How much of your daily actions or behaviour is in line with the truth of the gospel?

3. How can you be justified in Christ?

Response / Prayer

Dear God,
