Ruth

loved

Naomi

Read the Scriptures: Ruth 1:8 - 22

Background:

In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land of Israel. A man from Bethlehem in Judah brought his wife, Naomi, and two sons to live in the country of Moab. Naomi's husband died, and her two sons married Moabite women, one named Orpah and the other Ruth. Years later, her sons too, died and she was left with her daughter-in-laws. She decided to return to the land of Judah.

Observations:

1. What did Naomi tell her daughters-in-law? (v8-9)

---

2. What was their answer to Naomi? (v10)

---

3. Why did Naomi insist for her daughter-in-laws to return to their homes? (v11-13)

---

4. How did Orpah and Ruth respond to Naomi when she insisted they return to their families? (v14)

---

5. What did Ruth say to Naomi when she was urged to go home again? (v16-17)

---

6. What did Naomi say to the people in Bethlehem when they saw her? (v20)

---

Interpretations:

1. What did Ruth mean when she said to Naomi “Your people will be my people and your God my God”?

---

2. Why did Ruth choose to leave her homeland and follow Naomi to Bethlehem?

---

3. How did Ruth show her love and care for Naomi?

---

Applications:

1. What is your personal understanding from this passage of Scripture?

---

2. How can you love your mother unconditionally like Ruth loved Naomi?

---

3. What are the ways that you can show love and appreciation to your mother?

---

Response / Prayer

Dear God,
