Harvest field

The Workers Are Few (Matthew 9: 35 - 38)

³⁵ (7) _____ went through all the towns and villages, (1) _____

in their synagogues, (4) _____ the good news of the kingdom and healing every (9) _____ and sickness.

³⁶ When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were

(10) _____ and helpless, like sheep without a (8 →) _____.

³⁷ Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is (5) _____ but the

(3) _____ are (6) _____.

³⁸ (11) _____ the Lord of the (2) _____, therefore, to (8 ↓) _____

out workers into his harvest field."

Read the Scriptures: Matthew 9: 35 - 38; Acts 1: 8

Background:

This part of the Scripture is about Jesus' experience as he went through the towns and villages. He used an interesting way to describe those who were lost. Then, he talked about the harvest field and the workers that represented the different groups of people.

Acts 1:8 was one of Jesus' last words before he ascended to heaven.

Observations:

1. Who went through all the towns and villages? (Matthew 9: 35)

2. What did he do while he went through those places? (Matthew 9: 35)

3. Why did he have compassion on them? (Matthew 9: 35)

(compassion means a strong feeling of sympathy for people who are suffering and a desire to help them)

4. How did the Scripture describe their helplessness? (Matthew 9: 36)

5. What did he say to his disciples? (Matthew 9: 37)

6. What can they ask from the Lord of the harvest? (Matthew 9: 38)

7. What will happen when the Holy Spirit comes on them?

What will they be? (Acts 1: 8)

Interpretations:

1. What does “the harvest” or “the harvest field” mean?

2. Who are “the workers” that the Scripture refers to?

3. What is the meaning of “witnesses”?

(a witness is a person who sees something happen and is able to describe it to other people)

Applications:

The Scripture reminds us that there are many of our families and friends out there who still do not know Jesus. As followers of Jesus, we should pray for them and go out to the “harvest field” and be a witness for Christ.

1. What is the Holy Spirit speaking to you through this passage of Scriptures?

2. How can you be a good “worker” and go to the harvest field?

3. Where are your “harvest fields”? Write down the names of 3 persons that you want to share Christ to and pray for them.
