

LIGHT OF THE WORLD

- CG Christmas Party -

Concept – The idea is inspired by the story in John 9, the entire context of the book of John and the three letters of John. In John 9, it talks about the story of how Jesus made the blind man see. Jesus is the Light (John 1:4-9) and the blind man received light both literally and figuratively. And the writings of John as a whole was about Jesus coming, to make Himself known to the people; that is revealing the personhood of Jesus—He is Light, shedding upon our reality; He is Love, reconciling our relationship with God and people; and He is Life, the redemption of our souls. With that framework, came the concept of Jesus coming to earth to illuminate our senses.

The theme for Christmas this year is “Light of The World”.

TELLING CHRISTMAS STORY

One day, about 2000 years ago, an Angel called Gabriel told Mary she would have a very special baby and that she should call the baby Jesus

When Joseph found out about Mary's pregnancy, he must have not believed that she was pregnant by the Holy Spirit but that she had been unfaithful to him. But in a dream, an Angel appeared to Joseph and told him to trust Mary. The Angel also told Joseph that the child should be called Jesus

Mary and her husband had to travel to Bethlehem so that could pay their taxes. Mary was expecting to have her baby very soon.

When Joseph and Mary arrived in Bethlehem there were no rooms left in the Inns because the town was very busy. Mary was tired because the journey has been long and dusty. A kind innkeeper said they could shelter in the stable, with the animals.

In the night Mary had her baby. They called the baby Jesus just like the angel told them they should. They put baby Jesus in some swaddling clothes so he was wrapped up warm and snug and laid him in a small wooden manger.

It was a very starry night and the local shepherds were looking after their sheep in the fields. The Angels appeared and told them Jesus was born and that he would be a Saviour of men. They hurried to see Mary and Joseph and to wonder at Jesus.

Far away in the East, three wise men saw a new star in the sky. They knew this meant that a great ruler has been born. They followed the star because they wanted to see this new king.

The three wise men took Jesus gifts of Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh. These were very valuable gifts in those days. Gold could be used to buy things and the frankincense and myrrh were used for medicine and perfume.

The day Jesus was born, God set in motion His plan to reclaim the lost. Though God's love for us is constant and unconditional, our unconfessed sin separates us from spending eternity with Him. Jesus made a way for us to receive God's grace and forgiveness. Jesus was the very first Christmas gift – a gift from God to all who will accept Him

WRAPPING UP & SALVATION CALL

After the sharing of testimony, the cell leader could wrap up the Story of Christmas and offer Salvation call by saying:

“Allow me to complete the story of the gift of Christmas.

Jesus came because God knew that man could not save themselves, all on their own. Jesus came in the poorest, weakest, humblest manner so that God could identify with the weakness of being a baby and being human. Jesus suffered and died in pain and sorrow and mockery so that God could identify with fear, pain, suffering and death. But Jesus rose again from the dead so that through Him, man can live forevermore.

God did this all for the love of us because we are the reason for it all. God loves you!

If you believe and would like to accept this gift, here is a simple prayer that involves 3 parts: sorry; thank you; and please. Kindly repeat the prayer with me.”

“Lord Jesus Christ, I am sorry for the things I have done wrong in my life (take a few moments to ask his forgiveness for anything particular that is on your conscience). Please forgive me. I now turn from everything that I know is wrong. Thank you that you died on the cross for me, so that I could be forgiven and set free. Thank you that you offer me forgiveness and the gift of your Spirit.

I now receive that gift. Please come into my life by your Holy Spirit to be with me forever. Thank you Lord Jesus, Amen.”

Christmas Booklet Gift for your Guests

What is Alpha?

Alpha is a series of interactive sessions that freely explore the basics of the Christian faith.

Who's it for?

Alpha is for anyone who's curious. The talks are designed to encourage conversation and explore the basics of the Christian faith in a friendly, open and informal environment.

No question is out of bounds and you are free to discuss as much or as little as you wish.

How does it work?

Alpha is eleven sessions with the option of a day or weekend away in the middle.

Each session includes food, a short talk and a discussion at the end where you can share your thoughts.

At any point, if you think Alpha isn't for you, that's not a problem. There's no pressure, no follow up and no charge.

CHRISTMAS GIFT EXCHANGE IDEA

As I read this story, when you hear the word RIGHT continuously pass the gifts to the RIGHT until you hear the word LEFT, then switch directions and continuously pass the gifts to the LEFT. Here we go...

Merry Christmas!

Little Joe Wright jumped RIGHT out of bed. He LEFT his clothes RIGHT on the side of his bed so he could get dressed RIGHT away this morning. He ran straight to the window, but tripped because he LEFT his shoes untied in his haste. He had to see if it was the RIGHT weather for cutting down a Christmas tree!

Little Joe Wright LEFT the drapes open and the window cracked the night before, so the cold morning air would wake him RIGHT up. He jumped RIGHT up onto the chair he LEFT there and peeked out the window. Perfect! It was the RIGHT weather, no rain or sleet, just a clean crisp December day.

Little Joe Wright ran RIGHT to his sister Susie's room. "Get up, RIGHT now Susie! We need to leave RIGHT away!" exclaimed Joe Wright.

Then Little Joe Wright ran RIGHT to the kitchen where Mamma Wright had already LEFT him a nice bowl of oatmeal at just the RIGHT temperature. Papa Wright LEFT little Joe Wright's mittens RIGHT next to the oatmeal bowl because he knew Little Joe Wright wouldn't remember where he had LEFT them.

"All RIGHTY then", said Papa Wright. "Are we all ready?"

Mama Wright, Papa Wright and Susie Wright looked to the LEFT and then to the RIGHT side of the room, but Little Joe Wright was nowhere in sight. He had already LEFT and was waiting RIGHT in the back seat of the car. This was his favorite day of the year!

Little Joe Wright wanted to leave RIGHT away and had LEFT nothing to chance. He made sure that Papa Wright remembered to WRITE down the RIGHT directions to the tree farm. He LEFT the directions on the LEFT seat of the car. They needed to get an early start to pick the RIGHT tree. Picking the RIGHT Wright family Christmas tree was all Little Joe Wright could think of today!

Now you know how their story went. Which way did the gift go? To the RIGHT and to the LEFT, stop the passing and open your gift!"
